Dear Saints:

I am preaching today on a text different from Luke's Gospel. I have chosen John's story in Chapter 12 of the dinner party in which Jesus receives a beautiful and intimate gift from a friend who is overwhelmed with love and gratitude. Jesus himself is emotional in his acceptance of the unusual foot bath. It is a tender scene of extravagant caring, bitter criticism and difficult honesty. Martha, Mary, Lazarus and Judas all participate in this complex story that takes place just days before Christ's final Passover. ja+
